Comment Area

- I loved your class. Being able to turn a hard and complex task of political research into one where it is both understandable/practical and enjoyable is something to be valued! I also appreciate your superb computer literacy which I find very refreshing. Your slides are very informative and well thought out. Thank you for a great semester! Also, how do we know if everyone received an A for the final for a chance to get you a new tattoo?
- Really great and effective teaching. She is available to students and willing to help them with any of their needs. 10/10 would recommend. Professor LaPlant is an angel.
- Focusing more on how important the literature review is and how to do it more successfully would be helpful
